Government Debt Management measures concurrent with the Central Bank of Iceland foreign currency auction on 20 June 2012

According to the announcement from Government Debt Management, dated 28 March 2011, purchasers of foreign currency in upcoming Central Bank of Iceland auctions may sell their Treasury bills and bonds maturing before year-end 2013 in order to finance the purchases.

The foreign exchange transactions will take place through the intermediation of market makers in the foreign exchange market: Arion Bank, Íslandsbanki, and Landsbankinn. The Central Bank of Iceland has announced that the next foreign currency auction will be held on 20 June.

Parties that have submitted accepted offers in the Central Bank's foreign currency auction have the option of selling their Treasury securities to Government Debt Management on the following terms, with settlement taking place on 22 June 2012. The asking price for the Treasury securities will be announced after 16:00 hrs. on 14 June 2012.
